REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art of record fails to teach or suggest the claimed invention. Specifically, the prior art of record fails to teach or suggest a method of installation comprising a batch file that causes a native-language version of software to be installed and calls a translation script which selects a translation routine based on the operating system and file type, as recited in independent claims 1 and 17.

The prior art of record, Fisher et al. (USPN 6,247,128), disclosed a system of customizable installation. However, Fisher failed to disclose the independent claims as recited, including the above limitation.

The prior art of record, Karat, "Perspectives on Design and Internationalization", disclosed a concepts of internationalization and nationalization. However, Karat failed to disclose the independent claims as recited, including the above limitation.

The other prior art of record disclosed a various elements of translation and scripting. However, they failed to disclose the independent claims as recited, including the above recited limitation or clear motivation to recreate the above recited limitation.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Drawings

The drawings filed on 30 November 1999 and 16 June 2003 are acceptable subject to correction of the informalities indicated on the attached "Notice of Draftsperson's Patent Drawing Review," PTO-948. In order to avoid abandonment of this application, correction is required in reply to the Office action. The correction will not be held in abeyance. Primarily, drawings need to more legible, as graph paper makes linear markings difficult to read.
